Rama was born made for the Gods
He was very unlikely aware of the odds

He was blessed and respected by his father
As time passed he went farther

He was still respected by his daddy
When he had a fight with the demons he was hurt badly

He had fought thousands of demons to continue his journey
His wife was stolen during his journey

He was very sad of his failure
When will he have the chance to save

He had left his fathers palace
And his brother took his place

The demon was not reaccepted by the brother
So she had to bother

Sita was kidnapped by a evil creature
Witch she didn't mind because she would be in safe hands soon

He was not really happy about when Sita was sent away
But he had to stay like that way
